MILWAUKEE:

Tuesday Morning, April 21. The Milwaukee & Horicon Rallroad. We invite attention to the letter published this morning, from Mr. J. B. Surru, President of the Milwaukee and Horicon R. R. Company, proposing an increased subscription of a million and a quarter dollars to the capital stock and explaining the plan by which the increased value of ital in the accomplishment of such works a real estate, consequent upon the building of the your railroad from the lake to the great river. road, will accrue to the subscribers of this stock The plan is a bold, as well as a novel one, and has the merit, besides, of being simple and feasible. It holds out to every subscriber, to the amount of $200 and upwards, the certainty of a handsome return for his investment and the voice on the question of Slavery to speech of chance of a great speculation. Thus every $200 | bated breath and brunble expostulation. When subscriber gets one share of a stock which, in a Wisconsin, by her tens of thousands, puts for year, will pay as well as any Railroad stock in the year, will pay as went as any training training the property of the part of th not be worth less than $8,00 per sore and may tunity, such as is seldom offered, for men of small tion of Slavers of the contract of the direct tunity. means to secure valuable homesteads at hittle cost. The investment called for is small; the risk nothing; the return certain, and five, ten, or probably an hundred fold.

We have so often expressed our entire confidence in the value of the Milwaukee and Horiimportance, as an avenue and creator of trade and travel, to Milwaukee, that it is unnecessary to say more on either point, just now. But it is proper to add that no enterprise in the State has been more prudently, economically and honestly managed, than this. It has fought its way, quietly, steadily and perseveringly, against great 99stacles and amid many discouragements, until the glittering waters of the Fox are now in full view, and three months more will see it completed and in operation to BERLIN, 98 miles northwest of Milwauker. The next division of 54 miles will bring it to Stevens Point, the great mart of the Wisconsin Pineries, and thence it pursues a traight course northwardly, 180 to 190 miles, to Lake Superior, or the St. Croix River. We have undoubting faith in the money value of the enterprise; we confide implicitely in the integrity and efficiency of Mr. J. B. Smirn, the President of the Company, and his co-adjutous; and we unhesitatingly commend this scheme for an additional stock subscription, to the approving judgement and fiberal response of our fellow-citi-

polls which has sprung up, in this State, among the supporters of Mr. BUCHARAN, is raging with equal fury elsewhere. In New York the rival factions are tairly by the cars and saying much harder things of each other than the Republican press over did of either. In Michigan the same state of things exists. The Detroit Free Pres. of Friday last, the leading organ of Michigan "Democracy," devotes two and a half columns to an angry philippic against Connectus O'FLYPS, just appointed Postmaster of that city. The Free Press not only denounces the appointment as a bad one, but accuses O'FLYNS of all manner of political heresies ; taxes Gen. Cass (heretofore the god of its idolatry) with being privy to and indeed responsible for O'FLYER's appointment and calls upon President Bucaman to revoke it. The other Detroit papers join in the discussion, pro and con, and altogether are baving a lively time of it.
